TEN CENTS PER WEEK

MISSOURI ROADS DID NOT MAKE REASONABLE PROFIT

Judgment Rendered in Rate Case at Kansas City by Judge McPherson.

Said Six Per Cent Was Fair Profit.

RATE LAWS CONFISCATORY

Kansas City, March 8.—Judge McPherson, of the federal court, today rendered his decision in the Missouri rate cases. He declared that the passenger and freight rate laws of 1907 are confiscatory under the federal constitution. He said the evidence showed that the roads did not make a reasonable profit. He reached a decision by dividing the charges to be fixed for interstate and state traffic in proportion to earnings from state and interstate business and said 6 per cent would be a fair profit. Many roads, thus measured, showed a loss. Some showed a slight per cent profit but none 6 per cent. The court room was crowded when the decision was read.

State Will Appeal.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 8.—Gov. Hadley in commenting on rate case decision declared that he believed it was wrong. He said under the theory of railroad experts for finding expense chargeable to the state, and higher rate chargeable to expense. Attorney General Major declared he would take an appeal at once to a higher court and the case will probably go to the United States supreme court. The legislature is anxious of re-enacting laws now, but will appropriate any necessary sum to make the appeal.

$25,000 From Eleven Tobacco
Growers of Pendleton.

He alleges that the defendants banded together and by their acts and display of firearms forced him to give up the tobacco business and flee from the state. He asks $25,000 damages. The defendants are: John Hiddle, James Hiddle, Joseph Aulek, James Lang, Alfred Collier, Fred Colvin, Tod Jones, Charles Jones, Kirby Hamilton, Everett Aulek and Jesse Allen. In his bill of particulars Eckler stated that on the night of March 25, 1908, defendants and several others to him unknown, attacked and dragged him from his home in Harrison county and kept him a prisoner in Pendleton county for some time.

DIED ON TRAIN

RETURNING FROM WASHINGTON
ATTENDING INAUGURAL.

Joseph W. Calvert, of Pewee Valley,
Had Attended Every Inaugural
Since 1853.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—Expressing himself as being willing to die after he had lived long enough to attend the inauguration of his personal friend, President William H. Taft, Joseph W. Calvert, aged 82 years, a retired merchant and journalist, whose home is at Pewee Valley, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock aboard the Bradley special train, a few miles out of Clinton, W. Va. Mr. Calvert's death was due to acute pneumonia, which developed from a heavy cold which he contracted while marching in the inaugural parade at Washington last Thursday.

Despite his advanced age Mr. Calvert decided to make the trip to the inauguration, and left on the Bradley special last Tuesday. The day of the inauguration was marked by snow storms and blizzards, but Mr. Calvert participated in all of the ceremonies incident to the inauguration exercises and it is certain that exposure to the extreme cold weather caused his illness.

Mr. Calvert had attended every inaugural since 1853.

Married by County Judge.

ATTACHMENTS MAY BE ASKED FOR DEFENDANTS

Attachments will be issued for the defendants in the six night rider suits unless the defendants quit trying to dodge United States Deputy Marshal Edward Neel. This was announced this morning by the attorneys in a conference with the plaintiffs and Marshal Neel, who was instructed to continue serving the papers on every defendant.

Attorneys Wheeler Campbell, Walter Krone, Judge Rucker and Henry Bennett were in the city today. At Dawson Springs Saturday it was an impossibility to reach a settlement out of court because it is understood that the defendants refused to give the amount of money asked.

ENGLAND FACES A BIG DEFICIT— GEORGE THREATENS

Pretender to the Portuguese
Throne Renounces Claim
Out of Sympathy.

Pope's Ill Health Inspires Apprehension.

STRAUSS MAY GO TO TOKIO

London, March 8.—The British treasury faces a big deficit, and Chancellor Lloyd George continues to threaten, in view of the coming budget, that he is looking for "new hen roosts to rook," wherewith to meet the deficit.

Meanwhile there lies untapped a gold mine in the shape of the unclaimed balances in the English banks. The aggregate is unknown, but banking experts estimate that, including cash, securities, jewelry, gold and silver plate, the unclaimed treasure amounts to at least sixty millions sterling—that is, $300,000,000. This vast wealth has accumulated owing to the death, disappearance or forgetfulness of depositors.

Several old banks, like Coutts, have been accumulating derelict funds for 200 years, one alone having a dormant fund of $10,000,000. Many palatial bank buildings have been erected out of these unclaimed deposits. The bankers keep the amounts thus lying idle a profound secret and intend to light any interference therewith.

Big Fund in Chancery.

There is also a huge dormant fund lying in the court of chancery, which has accumulated from forgotten lawsuits involving big fortunes. The royal court house of London, which cost $8,000,000, was built from this fund.

To make the banks disgorge Horatio Bottomley, M. P., introduced a bill in the last session of parliament. The proposed law would require the bankers to make an annual return, giving the particulars of all the cash balances and deposits of securities, plate, jewelry and so forth which had been untouched by the depositors for the previous six years. Bankers failing to make such return would be liable to a fine of $500 a day for the period of delay.

Governor Patterson Bitterly Assailed in Speech by General Fitzhugh— Argument Begun in Cooper Trial

Who Fired First Shot and Coopers Motive For Taking Route on Street They Did
That Day Chief Question.

Nashville, Tenn., March 8.—Argument in the Cooper trial began today. Three speeches will be made on each side and while there will be no time limit it is hoped that the jury will get the case Wednesday night.

The court room was crowded long before court opened and hundreds were turned away and waited outside. Argument began shortly before 9 o'clock and it is expected to end Wednesday. After the speaking in ended Judge Hart will adjourn court for the day, when he will prepare his charge.

Capt. T. G. Fitzhugh, of Memphis, opened the argument for the state. He bitterly assailed Governor Patterson, many thrusts being of a personal nature, and it is hinted that trouble may be expected as a result of Fitzhugh's address. M. H. Meeks will open for the defense later today.

"A man who plays for funds belonging to widows and orphans and committed to his care in public office, a man whose sole occupation for years has been playing politics for all he could get out of it, whose honor has been attacked in the press for years," are some epithets applied to Governor Cooper by General Fitzhugh.

Gen. Fitzhugh denied Cooper's statement on the stand that Carmack frequently used his name in political speeches. "A search of the speeches," Fitzhugh said, "shows only three references ever made by Carmack to Cooper. Why didn't defense ask Patterson and Sharp about these references, they attended every debate and were on the stand. The men from whom Cooper says he got such information, and a search of the press fails to show a single reference by Carmack that would give a semblance of justification for the crime which robbed Tennessee of her brightest statesman."

The state's attorneys spent Sunday reading the transcript of the testimony and preparing their notes for the arguments. They also divided the testimony into three sections, so that there would be no time wasted by duplicating their arguments.

The attorneys for the defense were equally as diligent, and it was late last night when they left Judge Anderson's office for a final consultation at the jail with the defendants.

Famous for Short Charges.

Judge Hart is as famous for short charges as he is for never being reversed in the supreme court.

The two points in the case which will be the subject of fiercest attack and defense will be the question of who fired the first shot and the question, what were the Coopers doing on Seventh avenue, the street which Senator Carmack had to traverse, and about the time he was wont to go to his apartments?

Mrs. Charles Eastman, who is the only witness to the shooting, aside from the principals, and over whose shoulder, practically, the shots were fired, has sworn positively that Senator Carmack began to fall from the bullet wounds which killed him before he had his revolver fairly drawn. On the other hand, Col. Cooper and Robin swear that Carmack fired first and was preparing to fire again when

HEAVY RAINS MAY CAUSE ANOTHER RISE

Paducah is again the object of a heavy rainfall. This morning at 8 o'clock a hard rain began falling and at first was accompanied by thunder and lightning. The precipitation of rain from the heavens has not ceased since its early start. At noon today the rainfall was 1.66 inches and at 3 o'clock this afternoon the rainfall was 2.35 inches. A light rain fell last night which amounted to .10 inches. The rain today has caused the streets to be flooded at places. At Eighth and Adams streets at noon today the water was 8 to 10 inches deep and the sidewalks were flooded. In the west and north ends of town there has been complaints that the sewers are not carrying off the water. Providing the rain is general and especially at the headwaters of the Ohio, Tennessee and Cumberland rivers the river here will again rise and will probably go over the 45 foot mark. The weatherman predicts more rain for tonight accompanied with lightning and thunder.

NIGHT RIDER HOGG ESCAPES DRESDEN JAIL

One of Best Known Men in Bunch—Through His Con-
sion Convictions Secured.

May Have Been in Plot to Kill Sheriff.

HAS BEEN HELD AS TRUSTY

Dresden, Tenn., March 8.—Hillschell Hogg, the Ittefoot night rider, who turned state's evidence in the recent trial of the eight men convicted at Union City for the killing of Capt. Quinten Rankin at Walnutlog, October 19, last year, has taken French leave from Dresden, where he has been in the custody of Sheriff C. A. Brasfield, awaiting the final disposition of his case and those of other night riders not yet arraigned.

Just why he left his reservation is not definitely known, but the officials advance the theory that he was in some way connected with the assault on the life of Sheriff Brasfield Saturday night, in which he was badly wounded by a negro thief, Earley Mosley, who used a razor in the most vicious manner upon the sheriff.

It is intimated by the authorities that Hogg was implicated in the plot to kill Sheriff Brasfield, who is also the jailer.

The purpose of the assassination is not quite clear. Hogg has been a trusty about the jail ever since he was sent to the Weakley county jail for safekeeping, until it became time for him to appear as a witness against the other defendants in the night rider cases at Union City, and went about the town at his pleasure. He was not under bond, and in leaving only violated a sort of parole or release from imprisonment on his own recognizance.

Disliked Sheriff.

For some reason not explained he got a dislike for Sheriff Brasfield, and it is believed that this dislike is responsible for his leaving the jail, and perhaps his collusion with other prisoners to kill the sheriff and make a jail delivery.

Anyhow Saturday night, when Jailer Brasfield entered the jail to feed the prisoners, he was attacked by the negro Mosley and severely cut about the arms and chest with a razor. The jailer, who is a pretty good physical man himself, overpowered the murderous black and took the improvised weapon from him. Help was called and the negro locked in his cell. He had been confined on a charge of stealing fifteen coops of chickens and the prospects for a long term in the penitentiary made him desperate.

It is reported from Dresden that the negro stated to the sheriff and other officials that Hogg gave him the razor and told him to kill Sheriff Brasfield. Perhaps this confession of the negro got to the ears of Hogg, and, fearing that he would be locked up and charged with complicity in the crime, caused him to leave his quarters.

It is further understood that Hogg told some of the prisoners that he was going to Union City on a visit and would come back Monday. It is not believed that he will do so. The authorities at Union City say that he did not come there after leaving Dresden, or at least no one has seen him that made a report of it.

The military at Rankin barracks has been notified of Hogg's escape and a vigorous search for the fugitive is being made.

All the teams are evenly matched and some fine work and skill will be shown in playing the game of basketball. The Elks and the D. A. D. teams are going to do their best to get second place. Both the teams are even having won six games and lost three games each.

A SHIP LOAD OF MATTING

Mammoth Shipment Received
By L. B. Ogilvie & Co.
From China.

NEWEST AND CHOICEST PAT-TERNS EMPLOYED IN HUGE SHIPMENT.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SALE IN FEW DAYS.

Quantity Buying Makes Low Prices—Public Gets the Benefit During Sale.

From far off sunny China, through the billowy waters of the mighty Pacific and across the continent to Paducah, marks the voyage of the mammoth shipment of matting received in Paducah Saturday by L. B. Ogilvie & Co.

To be one firm of three to purchase a ship load of matting is the record established by the well known Paducah retail establishment of L. B. Ogilvie & Co.

This firm, together with two others, purchased a ship load of matting, having it shipped direct from Canton, on board the good ship Mongolia, which unloaded its cargo at San Francisco, from which point the three firms had their respective portions shipped to the desired points.

The shipment to L. B. Ogilvie & Co., which reached Paducah Sat-

day is possibly the largest single shipment of this necessary household furnishing ever received here. By buying the matting in this manner, a great saving is gained by L. B. Ogilvie, which saving they will share with their customers to a substantial degree.

The broker, the jobber and the middle man are thus eliminated, with the natural result that the public will be able to buy matting in Paducah this season at a price which will be tempting, to say the least.

This shipment of matting embraces the highest type with a variety of patterns, sufficient to satisfy the most exacting.

This shipment, large as it is, does not represent the extent of this firm's matting purchase, as they are expecting the arrival in a few days of as much more from far Japan. The matting business of this firm has increased to such an extent the past few years that they were forced to buy in quantities such as we evidence this season. The public is the gainer thereby.

As an evidence of the extent of the firm's matting trade a substantial order was received the past week from Delandena, Fla., which was filled promptly.

To better acquaint the general public with the rare values to be offered in matting this season, L. B. Ogilvie will in a few days announce a mammoth matting sale which will eclipse any similar event ever held in Paducah.

The date of this matting sale will be announced in an early issue of The Sun and it will be well for those interested to keep a lookout for this announcement.

Paid to Be Good.

Herbert Gladstone says that a fellow member of parliament invented a plan whereby he kept his eight or nine-year-old son from repeating swear words. Every time the little fellow did so the father gave him a penny on the promise not to use the word again. The M. P. had great faith in the power of this system until one day when he was chatting with half a dozen guests before dinner. His home adjoins a golf links, and little Gus, who had been out walking near them, burst into the drawing-room, his blue eyes dancing with enthusiasm. "Oh, papa, papa!" he cried, "I've just heard a new one that's worth a shilling."

FIRST SUNDAY IN WHITE HOUSE

Spent With Democratic Simplicity by New President.

Was Accompanied by Brother Charles Going to and From Church on Foot.

TAFT WENT HORSEBACK RIDING.

Washington, March 8.—Democratic simplicity characterized the first Sunday in the White House of the Taft family. President Taft, accompanied by his brother Charles, walked to the Unitarian church for the morning services.

The president's appearance on foot among the crowd of several hundred persons on the sidewalk and street was a surprise. There was no attempt at a demonstration, but the eagerness to get a close view of the new president was not veiled.

After the services, the president accompanied his brother on foot to the latter's temporary residence, where he remained an hour. He returned to the White House on foot, and after luncheon, rode "Sterry," a newly acquired horse, and together with several friends went for a ride over the new Potomac speedway.

President Taft saw no callers on business during the day, thus beginning the administration with heretofore enforced maxim that Sunday should be a day of rest.

DENEEN MAY GO TO THE SENATE

Hinted That Taft Favors Governor's Election.

Illinois Legislature Will Assemble
Tuesday Prepared to Take Up Important Work.

SENATORS WILL GET BUSY.

Springfield, March 8.—The legislature is prepared to get down to the hard work that it has before it. On next Tuesday the members of the general assembly will return to the capital prepared to stick energetically to the work of the session, which has been delayed by different causes.

The senatorial fight which has occupied the attention of the legislature since January 20, when the first joint ballot was taken, and the disturbing fight among the Democrats in the house also has had a tendency to retard the important work.

The Illinois inaugural party, headed by Governor Deneen and other state officers is expected home tomorrow. Whether the governor's trip to the national capital will have any bearing on the senatorial situation remains a matter of conjecture. Ever since he went to Washington there has been persistent talk that the toga will be forced on him and that eventually he will accept the honor.

Stories are afloat that the president wants Deneen in the senate. There is nothing to indicate that the deadlock will be broken during the coming week.

For the next two weeks the newly appointed house committees will be extremely busy with 226 house bills that have been referred to them.

The limit of time for the introduction of new bills in the house expires April 4.

A separate county high school is wanted by the county school trustees, who considered the question Saturday afternoon. A unanimous vote was taken to build a separate school and a committee consisting of Trustees W. F. Sexton, W. R. Davis and P. A. Bagwell, was appointed to consider a location for the school. The committee will report at a meeting of the board March 20.

Heath, Lone Oak and Arcadia want the school, but no offers were made for the location Saturday, but the committees will be conferred with. A lively discussion was had during the meeting. Superintendent J. A. Carnegie spoke of the advantages of the city high school, while the Rev. W. J. Naylor, Prof. J. S. Ragdale and W. A. Middleton made speeches in favor of locating the school in the county.

ADMINISTRATION HAS SOOTHING EFFECT

Upon Nerves of Financial Community.

Henry Clews Says It Is Fortunate That Will Continue Policies of His Predecessor.

STOCK MARKET IS NEGLECTED

New York, March 8.—The coming of the new administration will have a soothing effect upon the nerves of the financial community. Mr. Roosevelt introduced many reforms that were necessary for public welfare, and pushed them with a vigor that was often unsettling to vested interests. Certain tendencies arising from an undue concentration of wealth were threatening the political horizon, and no matter who undertook the initiative in restraining or regulating them the effect was sure to be disturbing. Yet the purposes of Mr. Roosevelt were always of a high order, and with few exceptions were conducive to public good. It is safe to say that Mr. Roosevelt will go down into history as one of the greatest presidents ranking close to Washington and Lincoln; but his methods of carrying out these purposes were, as already said, often very irritating and unsettling. So long as those restraints had to be applied it is perhaps as well that their initiation should have fallen into the hands of Mr. Roosevelt, for it is easily conceivable that had the task been undertaken by one of less force and more radical the end might have been disastrous. Our president's policies were never destructive; they were always progressive, and have done more to check extreme radicalism and socialism than any movement that the country has ever experienced. As soon as the dust of conflict subsides, a clearer vision of Mr. Roosevelt's character will be obtained; and ten years hence it is safe to say that he will have attained a much higher position in the regard of his fellow countrymen than he holds at the present time. The country is fortunate in having a successor who will continue these policies.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Paducah.

Scores of Paducah people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement? John Sanley, farmer, six miles south of Paducah, Ky., says: "My little boy, aged 12 years, was a sufferer from weak kidneys for a number of years. He did not have any control over the kidney secretions, and this caused us much annoyance, especially at night. He complained of his back pain and last summer his health became very poor. We had a doctor from Louisville treat him, but one week he would be better and the next worse. We had often read of Doan's Kidney Pills and finally decided to give them a trial. We procured a supply at Dulick, Son & Co.'s drug store and at the end of the first week's use our son was much better. He was soon able to control the kidney secretions and a complete cure finally resulted."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

In a firm but more tactful and judicious manner. President Taft's ideas and methods are well understood. He has the faculty of winning by attraction rather than compulsion, and now that the current of reform has been turned in the direction in which he distinctly led there is every reason to expect a healthy progress in political developments.

One of the country's greatest needs at this time is large crops, and much depends upon the next harvest. A poor yield will surely prolong depression and bring much hardship among the working classes, while a big yield will prove an incalculable advantage and do much towards insuring a return to real prosperity. The high cost of living must be largely attributed to the high prices prevailing for agricultural products. Wheat, flour, oats, hay, meats, vegetables, butter, eggs, etc., are all unusually expensive, because there is not a sufficient abundance of these articles to keep prices at a more normal level. Available supplies are so limited and cheap money so abundant, that unhealthy speculation is fostered. It is altogether too easy to corner the markets. The only cure for this situation is larger crops the world over and higher rates for money. It is generally recognized that the growth of agriculture, especially in the United States, has not kept pace with the growth of population partly because of the drift towards the great cities. The result is that today our farmers as a class are the most prosperous people in the country; in fact, they have had several years of prosperity, and the prospects are that this will continue for some time to come. No one begrudges our agricultural classes their good fortune, for they have been, and must continue to be, the backbone of the country. But this prosperity has not been shared by others; it has been chiefly class prosperity, whereas true prosperity is that which is shared by all classes in something approaching equitable proportions. Just now the farmers are thriving upon the necessities of a helpless public, which is passing through a period of more or less adversity and depression. Upon the poor the high prices of food products today are an exceeding hardship, and the contrast between the average working man in our great cities and the average condition of the same class in agricultural sections is very striking, showing a difference that should not indubitably continue. The new school of economists has been arguing that prosperity consists in scarcity and high prices. This fallacy, however, is being rapidly exploded. Managers of some of our great trusts fell into the error of adopting these new doctrines much to their present discomfort, and apparently our farmers have yet to learn the lesson that true prosperity lies in abundance and not in scarcity. The country as a whole would be infinitely better off with big crops at moderate prices than limited crops at famine prices, such as are being paid today for the essentials of life. Therefore, one of the first necessities of the day is big crops. American farmers should do their share in promoting the country's welfare by providing a liberal increase in acreage and securing a larger yield as far as possible by improved methods of cultivation. Possibly they would not obtain so large a profit per bushel as in the last harvest, but they and the country as a whole would prosper more under big crops and reasonable prices during 1909. Re-adjustment is quite as imperative in the agricultural world as in the industrial.

The labor outlook is somewhat unsettling. Reduction of wages by the Lackawanna Steel company has been regarded as suggestive of what must be expected elsewhere. Of course, nobody wishes to see the rewards of labor curtailed; but if prices are to come down because of lessened demand, and cost of production to decline in consequence, it is difficult to show how labor is to escape some share in the general re-adjustment. As prices fall the purchasing power of wages will naturally increase, and labor will consequently have compensation for the change. Such readjustments, however, are always disturbing and provoke more or less friction. The outlook at present strongly suggests a big strike in the coal business. The men have made a series of demands which are unreasonable and cannot command public approval. They are controlled by new leaders under the necessity of "making good" while as a result of several years' good work and good pay they are able and inclined to a temporary rest from labor. The coal companies, on the other hand, are equally determined to refuse these demands. The consumption of coal has been considerably curtailed by mild weather and dullness of trade; so that a considerable stock of coal is on hand, enabling the companies to suspend mining to advantage for several weeks. Both sides are in a position to fight, and both sides are apparently willing for a test of strength. Under such conditions a struggle seems almost inevitable on April 1, unless concessions not now expected are made by one party or the other.

The stock market has been more or less neglected owing to the absence of many large operators to uncertainty concerning tariff, and to the interest attached to a change of administration. A better undertone is observable, especially for desirable securities since the reaction of the past two or three weeks. There is more confidence in values, and considerable amounts of high grade bonds and stocks have been withdrawn from the market by permanent investors. Speculation is, of course, restrained by the dullness in trade and the reactionary tendencies in some of the commodity markets. A drop in steel exercised a temporarily depressing effect, and the demoralized condition of the copper market does likewise. It is recognized, however, that these declines pave the way for a resumption of business under healthier conditions, and however unwelcome these changes may be to sellers they are generally recognized as remedial in their effect. Money is easier and this should encourage resumption of business. The outlook for the market is rather hopeful than otherwise, and there is little prospect of any serious break in the absence of unfavorable news.

BARB UP AGAINST CASTRO.

Venezuelan Dictator Is Now an Exile From Land He Once Ruled.

Paris, March 8.—Senator Jose Paul, the Venezuelan envoy to Europe, has left here for Berlin. He is authority for the statement that President Gomez has forbidden both Cipriano Castro, and his wife to enter Venezuela. He is of the opinion that Castro will proceed from Europe to Nicaragua to consult with President Zelaya, of that country, who is his friend, and hoping to get in touch with his partisans in Venezuela from Nicaragua; but Senator Paul thinks Castro has no chance of success in this latter purpose.

M. Brun, director of the French Cable company, that was expelled from Venezuela some time ago by Castro, has left France on board the steamer Guadalupe for La Guaira and Caracas, with full power to treat directly with the Venezuelan government in settling the dispute with the cable company.

Daily Thought.

He who wants to do good in some notable way will never have any good to note.

Senator Dewey has introduced a bill in the senate to amend the constitution and have inauguration day set for the last Wednesday in April. Following the stormy day in Washington last week the sentiment in favor of a change in the date, something that has been advocated for years, received new impetus and there seems a great probability that it will be changed.

Chicago churches are conducting a great campaign "to win men to Christ." "Soul saving" services were held in all the Protestant churches yesterday. A full page advertisement of the services was inserted in the Saturday newspapers, and a great effort made to elicit the support of laymen and churchmen in the work. The campaign is part of one launched two years ago to inaugurate a worldwide season of soul saving, in which it was proposed that all the Protestant churches in the world join.

Too bad about that picture for John Sharp Williams. Members of congress, wishing to give a present to the distinguished southerner, who has been promoted from the artist to the senate, commissioned an artist to make a picture of him, but when it was completed and arrangements made for the presentation, it was found so disappointing that no one had the heart to present it. Williams said, when he saw it, "I know I am not handsome, but they could not have done worse if they had been painting Adam," and Congressman Hede said he would not give it to a man who had shot his dog.

Following the announcement that former President Roosevelt would sail on a certain date of this month, the agents of the steamship on which he is to sail are being besieged with requests for reservations for people who want to sail on the ship with Roosevelt. So curious are those who want to be on the same boat, and so interested are they that even table seats have been spoken for. This seems to suggest a new idea for the disposition of our ex-presidents. He might be induced to travel on steamships and railroads with the view of making big traffic for the lines that are fortunate enough to carry him.

TAFT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.
 Almost without exception southern newspapers have editorially commended President Taft's policies as outlined in his inaugural address and it is plain to be seen that a better political feeling exists than at any time within the last forty years. The Memphis News-Sentinel voices the popular feeling of the entire southland in the following comment on the address:

"Wise, conservative and conciliatory are the adjectives that come most readily to the mind upon reading the inaugural address of President Taft."

"He avows his purpose to carry forward and give effect to the reform measures inaugurated by President Roosevelt."

"He pledges himself to see that the inordinate power of the great combinations of wealth is curbed, and especially to see that the railroads and other public utility corporations shall not be allowed to water their stock nor charge inordinate rates upon the strength of inflated securities.

"In regard to the revision of tariff, he takes a more moderate position than has been usual with his republican predecessors in office."

"Attention is called to the fact that, owing to the decrease of oil imports and the falling off of other sources of revenue, together with the increase in the expenses of the government, we will have a deficit of about $100,000,000 for the current year, which must be made up not only by increasing the receipts from the tariff, but by other means of taxation. Among the other sources of taxation mentioned, he suggests that there should be a graduated inheritance tax. That part of the message pertaining to the tariff calls attention, of course, to incidental protection necessary to meet the difference between the cost of production in this country and abroad."

"The Roosevelt policies in regard to the army and navy are reiterated in almost exactly the same words used in the messages of the outgoing president."

"Of special interest to Memphis and the Memphis district is his advocacy of the deep waterway project. The postal savings bank is recommended and a more elastic form of currency is suggested."

"Great stress is laid upon the necessity of encouraging and building up our foreign commerce."

"But that feature of the message which is of greatest interest to the southern people is the part devoted to the negro question and to his policies in regard to the south generally. On these questions Mr. Taft takes the most advanced grounds of conciliation ever yet occupied by a Republican president."

"He starts out with the open declaration that he is anxious to cultivate cordial relations with the southern people, not so much because of his desire to change the electoral vote of this section of the country, as because he desires to wipe out all feeling of sectional prejudice and to permit the southern white men to choose their political affiliations on a broad plane of principle rather than because of the race question alone."

"He argues that the south is no longer in danger of negro supremacy, because the validity of the state constitutions prescribing educational tests has been upheld by the federal courts. The implication necessarily follows that in his opinion this test eliminates the bulk of the negro vote; that it will cut no further figure in the politics of the country."

"While he declares that, personally, he has no race prejudice, yet he recognizes its existence among the southern white people, and practically pledges himself not to offend this feeling by appointing negroes to office. His reason for this position is, that such appointments do the negro more harm than good. The negro is told that he must work out his own salvation by industry and thrift, and not depend on the northern people to help him to social equality."

"These are wise words which will do the south immeasurable good and popularize Mr. Taft beyond calculation in this section. Such a policy, consistently pursued, will do more to make votes for the Republicans in the south than all the negro ballots that have ever been secured by forceful methods. Indeed, if President Taft shall live up to the sentiments expressed in his inaugural address, he will bring about such an era of good feeling in politics as has not existed since the days of James Monroe."

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Albion Town 12345 78901. "All right let us get away and clear out for Louisville," said the engineer to the Fulton-Louisville accommodation train yesterday morning when time for the train to pull out. "Well, I guess we will not," shouted the fireman, "for we haven't any fire." Then there was jumping around of the employees, as the engine was fast "dying" and in a few minutes was "dead," as the railroad men call an engine without steam.

The engine came in from Cairo with the Cairo train and the locomotive was scheduled to pull the accommodation train to Louisville. All connections had been made, when a negro employe undertook to shake out the ashes. He pulled out the lever manipulating the grate bars, and could not get it to turn back, and in a few seconds all of the fire had dropped out of the fire box, and the steam was fast being condensed into water. Another engine was secured quickly and the train left Union station only a few minutes late.

Judge Lawrence Anderson, of Mnyfield, is an interesting story teller, and whenever he strikes Paducah his friends are always anxious to learn his latest joke, and he usually delivers the goods. While in the city last week a group of Judge Anderson's admirers were flocked around him when one ventured to remark: "Judge, how is your old friend Bill?" "I heard he was in a critical condition," "Yes," said Judge Anderson, "I just had a talk with the doctor about the condition of Bill, and he said if he could live until 6 o'clock tonight that he would get well, but if he does not he will die."

You can tell what a man really is by what he brings out in you.

NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE

For Attempt to Criminally Assault White Woman.

Another One is Shot When He Refused to Allow Posse to Search Premises.

HED HAD ADMITTED HIS GUILT

Rockwall, Tex., March 8.—After having been identified by Mrs. Arthur McKinney as the negro who attempted a criminal assault on her Friday morning, Anderson Ellis was taken from the jail and fastened to an iron stake driven into the earth and burned to death in the presence of thousands of persons.

Earlier in the evening Will Clark, a negro, was shot and killed when his father refused permission to a posse to search his premises on the assumption that Ellis was concealed there.

People were here from several towns and from Dallas, Collin and Hunt, as well as Rockwall county to witness the execution of the negro.

Ellis admitted his guilt, but refused to make a statement, or to leave any farewell message for his relatives. He did not utter a cry as the pile of wood, which had been saturated with kerosene, was set afire, nor did he show loss of nerve as the flames cooked his flesh.

He was dead in nine minutes after the torch was applied.

The burning occurred in the court house square. Early last Friday Mrs. McKinney went to the yard, where Ellis seized her, being an employe of Mrs. McKinney, and attempted to assault the woman. She knocked him down and ran and he ran away, saying he would kill her if she told of the assault.

PRETTY SCHOOL FROCK.

This little suspender dress is particularly desirable for everyday wear, as the gimpes are made separately and therefore can be laundered when the sleeves and yoke become soiled without marring the skirt. A plain gingham or satin chambray makes in this style would be pretty with a gimpes of white. If short sleeves are preferred for warm weather, the deep cuff may be omitted and the puff portion finished with a narrow band.

4521.—This dress closes at the back and has the suspender portion joined to the skirt. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes from 4 to 12 years of age. To copy it for a girl 8 years of age, it requires 2 1/4 yards of material 36 inches wide for the dress and 1 1/4 yards 18 inches wide for the gimpes. Any person desiring to procure this pattern may do so by sending 10c. to this paper giving No. 4521 and the size desired.

These patterns will be supplied by The Sun for 10 cents each.

SEED CORN

HELPS THE FARMERS OF KENTUCKY.

The Report of Commissioner Rankin Shows Increase in Each Acre's Yield.

Frankfort, Ky., March 8.—Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin issued the following address to the farmers of Kentucky in regard to the distribution of seed corn. He says:

"To the Farmers of Kentucky.—In my distribution of seed corn last year I tried to get it as widely distributed as possible, and would have distributed more if the funds were to be had from the appropriations made for the agricultural department. From this distribution I have received some very encouraging letters, extracts from a few of which I give, showing what can be done by using high-grade seed corn."

"Mr. L. T. Clore, of Burlington, Boone county, reports that on the same soil and with the same cultivation, his seed corn made twenty-six bushels per acre, and the Boone county white corn sent him by me made fifty-five bushels per acre."

"Mr. G. B. Remines, of Kaut, Greenup county, reports that his yield was increased from twenty-six bushels to forty bushels per acre by using the improved seed corn sent him by me, notwithstanding the very dry weather of last year."

"Mr. C. B. Farrington, of Albany, Clinton county, reports that sixty ears shelled weighed fifty-six pounds, and that the yield was seventy-five bushels."

"This year I have tried to distribute some high grade and improved seed corn in every county in the state, and the supply is now exhausted, so numerous have been the calls for it. You can readily see from the above statements that it pays to use good seed, as these letters come from the eastern, southern and northern portions of the state. I would like to be able to distribute 1,000 bushels of seed corn in this state, if I had the funds, but am so limited that I cannot. Ask your legislators to increase the appropriations for this office, so that the commissioner can do the greatest good for the greatest number of citizens of our commonwealth."

"Regretting that I am unable to furnish more seed corn and with best wishes for the success of the agricultural interests of Kentucky I beg to remain, yours very truly,"

"M. C. RANKIN."

WRIGHT TO BE CHIEF JUSTICE

Story Printed in New York American.

If Rumor Proves True There Will Be Two Ex-Confederates on the Bench.

JUDGE WHITE THE OTHER ONE

Washington, D. C., March 8.—The New York American says that Gen. Luke Wright will be appointed chief justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy which will be made this summer by the resignation of Chief Justice Fuller. The American says that General Wright is a Catholic and adds:

"His appearance on the supreme bench will make two members belonging to that faith. President McKinley having appointed Justice McKennan from California."

"It was General Wright who suggested to Mr. Taft the availability of John M. Dickinson, the Illinois Central attorney who is to succeed him. Both are from Tennessee and have been bosom friends for a long time."

"It is not believed that Chief Justice Fuller will quit the bench before the summer vacation. The supreme court usually adjourns about June for the holidays, reconvening late in the fall. General Wright will provide as chief justice, when the court meets in October."

"President Cleveland appointed R. D. White, a senator at the time from Louisiana, to the supreme court. Thus for the first time since the civil war a southern Democrat was elevated to a seat on the highest judicial tribunal in the world. Now comes another."

"Wright served in the civil war as a Confederate as did White. When he dons his robes two ex-Confederates and two holding securely to the constitutional provisions pertaining to the sovereignty of states will occupy two of the most exalted positions within the gift of the American people."

On Next Thursday.
 J. M. Dickinson, the new secretary of war, is expected here Thursday, when he will be formally inducted into office.

Moore, delivered a strong sermon on "Christ, the World's Magnet." Five hundred dollars was raised in the morning service for payment of the church debt, and $50 for foreign missions. The men's adult Bible class now has a membership of 35 and continues to grow.

The seven services during Lent are on the seven words of Christ spoken while on the cross.

First Baptist.

"The Young Man in High Society"

was the first sermon of a series addressed to young men last night by the Rev. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist church. Last night he took the life of Joseph and emphasized the strong points of his character. In part he said:

"This is to be not a series of moral lectures, but of gospel sermons. I have not invited you young men here to lecture you, but to preach to you. The Christian's character to whom I introduce you this evening affords a shining example of a mind unclouded by the deepest distress and uncorrupted by the highest degree of elevation. He is sold by his evilous and jealous brothers a slave into Egypt, made a menial servant in the household of Potiphar, thrown in prison by a lying woman for a sin he never committed and finally exalted to the second highest place in that great empire. But in all these positions Joseph's character remains unimpaired. The trial of adversity cannot overcome him; the temptation to sensuality and lasciviousness cannot conquer him; nor the opportunity to avenge the wrong of his brothers debases him. Joseph in Egypt like a pearl in a puddle keeps his virtue. Whether a son, a servant, a prisoner or an official he is true to his highest ideals. They may sell him into slavery or cast him into prison, but he keeps a clear conscience, and a good conscience in jail were better than a pricking conscience at liberty. But above all Joseph had the conscious presence of Jehovah. The fear of God casts out all other fear; it is the keeper of all other virtues. Godliness is profitable for all things for the life that now is, and that which is to come."

Miss Harlan and Mr. Bell Gardner

Marry in Cairo.
The marriage of Miss Anna Harlan and Mr. James Bell Gardner, both of this city, in Cairo on Sunday was a surprise to their many friends in Paducah, so quietly had it been arranged and carried out. The popular couple left yesterday morning for Cairo and were married there, returning home last night. They were unaccompanied by any friends, but were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Bray while there. They went to Cairo in order to have a quiet wedding.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Capt. Frank Harlan and Mrs. Harlan. She is a strikingly pretty girl of the brunette type and has a winning personality. She is popular in a large circle of friends.
Mr. Gardner belongs to a prominent county family. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gardner, of the Mayfield road, and is a member of the Frank L. Gardner Coal company of the city. He is a popular and well known young business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gardner, on the Mayfield road.
The Richardson will return from Clarksville Tuesday night and leave for Nashville Wednesday noon.
The John S. Hopkins will be the Evansville packet tomorrow morning. The Eagle will leave for St. Louis tomorrow with two barges of logs.
The Jim Duffy is on her way to White river. She made up a new tow at Cairo. Her other tow was damaged by striking the Cairo bridge.
The Robert Dodd, a new towboat just completed at Vicksburg, is due in port today from the Mississippi and will take charge of Emerson's floating palace, which has been in winter quarters for several months. The new boat was purchased by Ralph Emerson, owner of Emerson's Floating Palace.

The Condon passed inspection Saturday afternoon in first-class order.
The steamer Royal in the Goldenia and Paducah trade, was inspected Saturday and she must have some new boiler sheets put in before re-entering her regular trade. The needed repair is being hurried along here in the Paducah harbor. The Royal expects to enter her trade next Thursday.

The Bald Eagle when she left this port yesterday was without a doubt the prettiest boat that has pulled out of this port for many a day. Everything about the boat was just in perfect condition and she was as white as snow. All the boats of the 14th fleet are put in the same perfect condition while tied up in winter quarters each year.
The Harvester will go south the latter part of this week with a tow of coal for the West Kentucky Coal company. Her tow will be made up just as soon as the Egan returns from the Careyville mines with a tow of coal.

The West Kentucky Coal company added another good towboat to its fleet Saturday when the company purchased the steamer Mary Anderson. The Mary Anderson was owned by J. T. Anderson, of Linden, Tenn. The Anderson is practically a new boat. She was built about two years ago at Jeffersonville, Ind., and has been used in the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers for towing ties. She will be put in first-class condition by the West Kentucky Coal company and will probably be used as a harbor boat.

FOR A LIBERAL SUNDAY.
New York, March 8.—The Liberal Sunday League, of which Judge Warhopper Lynn has been chosen president, met and decided to inaugurate its campaign.

A set of principles was adopted, which declares for open libraries, swimming baths, gymnasiums, playgrounds, reasonable outdoor sports and "national amusements" for the people of the city on Sunday.
The league intends to ascertain the majority opinion of the voters of New York as to the sort of Sunday they desire.

Every voter, it is said, will be communicated with by mail or otherwise and his vote upon a series of questions to be propounded to him solicited.

Laymen's Rally.
The Laymen's Rally service at the Broadway Methodist church Sunday night was an interesting occasion. Dr. Vernon Blythe, president of the Laymen's movement of Broadway church, presided at the service. The singing was spirited. The speakers of the evening were Prof. W. H. Suggs, principal of the Washington building, and Mr. John A. Carnegie, superintendent of the city schools. Mr. Suggs delivered a forcible address on "The Value of the Layman to the Church." He pointed out the growing place and power the laity held in the religious life of today and the wondrous reflex influence of the movement.

Mr. Carnegie's subject was "The Layman and Missions." It was a thoughtful plea for the growth of the missionary cause, and emphasized the firm and wider hold it was taking upon the world today.
The Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding elder of the Paducah district, filled the pulpit of the Broadway Methodist church at the morning hour. It was the second round of quarterly appointments. A large congregation greeted Dr. Blackard. There were two additions to the church at this service.

Children's Masquerade Tonight.
The children of Temple Israel will celebrate the Feast of Purim tonight with a masquerade at the Standard club. All the older members of the congregation are invited to attend.

FAUST SPAGHETTI AND LENT

Some people get the idea during Lent that not to eat meat means to go hungry. Of course that is absurd to those who know Faust Brand Spaghetti. How delicious and nutritious it is! Now varied are the ways in which the cook may appetizingly serve it—now as a soup, now as a heavy course, now as dessert, and each time delectably different in taste, flavor and aroma!

Have you friends among Lenten observers who perhaps haven't recognized this? Tell them that Faust Brand Spaghetti, clean, wholesome, is an American product. Tell them that it is sold in five or ten cent packages by almost every grocer. Tell them of the book of Faust Spaghetti recipes on request by writing to

MOTHER'S FRIEND

HARD PROBLEM BEFORE CANNON

Puzzled Over Next Committee on Rules.

Choice of Successor to Mr. Sherman Lies Between Representatives Mann and Tawney.

DEMOCRATS LIKE FITZGERALD.

Washington, March 8.—Speaker Cannon is puzzling his head in the interim between sessions of congress over the personnel of the next committee on rules. The appointment of this committee will be one of the first duties the speaker of the incoming congress will have to perform, unless the "insurgents" muster enough strength to form an alliance with the Democrats to amend the rules so as to provide for the election of a committee on commissions. Speaker Cannon does not believe they will and so he is considering some of the problems that may vex him in the days to come. There are two vacancies on this powerful committee. Vice President Sherman has just left it, and so has Senator-elect Williams, of Mississippi. Many members believe that the choice of a successor to Mr. Sherman lies between Representatives Tawney, chairman of the committee on appropriations, and Representative Mann, of Illinois.

JOHNSTON BROS.

Although Mr. Sherman came from New York, the position is claimed by western members. Mr. Sherman succeeded Gen. Grossvenor, of Ohio, and the western delegations claim it is high time that the plum be returned to them. While the speaker is a western man, it is urged as customary that the other two Republican members of the committee be chosen one from the east and the other from the west. Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, is the eastern representative. Mr. Tawney's rise in the house has been phenomenal. He has a powerful influence on the floor and it is urged he will be a great strength to the committee. Most of all the speaker desires a parliamentarian who can defend any rule on the floor of the house in an impressive and persuasive way. Representative Mann fills the qualification very well, but the objection to him is he comes from the speaker's own state.

Representatives Denby and Townsend, Smith, of Iowa, Currier, of New Hampshire, and Foster of Vermont, are regarded as possibilities. The selection of the new Democratic member probably will be left to Minority Leader Clark. It has been regarded as desirable to have the minority leader a member, but Mr. Clark cannot take the position as long as Representative Armond, of the same state, Missouri, remains on the committee. A plan has been devised by which Mr. Clark and Representative Fitzgerald, regarded as one of the best parliamentarians on the Democratic side, will become a minority representative on the committee. As yet the plan has not been approved by all interested in it.

Disappointment. "I'm in a pretty fix. I can tell you," said an Oxford undergraduate to his pal toward the end of the last term. "I wrote to my father, giving him a list of the books I urgently needed, and asking him to send me money to buy them."

"And didn't he?" asked the pal. "No; he sent the books."—Tit-Bits.

WILL CELEBRATE AT PITTSBURG

Christian Church One Hundred Years Old.

Will Be Greatest Religious Event in Modern Times—Elaborate Preparations.

FIFTY THOUSAND WILL ATTEND.

The Christian church (Disciples of Christ) celebrate what is known as their one hundredth anniversary at Pittsburgh, Pa., October 11-19, next. It was near there, at Washington, Pa., that Thomas Campbell published a document known as the "Declaration and Address" in the autumn of 1809, which has become historic. The principles embodied in this document led to a movement that has resulted in the existence of the "Christian church," which now numbers about one million and a quarter members, with six thousand ministers, about forty schools and colleges, etc. It is a growing church and is one of the most aggressive religious bodies in all the world.

There is great activity in all these churches now, preparatory to the celebration in Pittsburgh. One chief aim is to raise $400,000 for foreign missions. The special day set apart for this purpose is March 7. All the Christian churches are expected to make a contribution on that day to preach the gospel throughout the whole world. The church in this community is taking an active interest in this matter, and it may be depended upon to make a creditable showing.

The gathering in Pittsburgh in October will doubtless be the greatest religious event in modern times. Halls are being provided to seat no less than thirty thousand people at one time. Fully fifty thousand delegates are expected to be present, perhaps more. There will be representatives from England, Scotland, Scandinavia, Australia, Japan and perhaps other countries. Altogether there will be about three hundred speakers during the centennial celebration. They will be among the leading thinkers and orators of the country. Eminent scholars, financiers, politicians and men in all the walks of life will be in attendance.

GRAVE DANGERS TO BE FACED

By Roosevelt in Dark Continent, Says Prof. Starr.

Former President Will Never Come Back Alive if He Explores Certain Sections.

HIS PLANS FOR THE TRIP

Chicago, March 8.—"Theodore Roosevelt will never return to the United States alive if he carries out his announced intentions in exploring the dark regions of Africa in quest of big game."

This is the opinion of Prof. Frederick Starr, of the University of Chicago, whose prophecy is based upon his knowledge of the dangers of that country, particularly the insidious fevers, through his expeditions to the Congo Free State.

"Sleeping Sickness." The ex-president, according to the educator, will invade a section of the country where few white men have dared to venture heretofore on account of the fatal nature of prevailing epidemics and the "sleeping sickness."

"His danger," says the professor, in a communication to students, "will not lie in the ferocity of the animals which dwell there, but in the fevers which every explorer has come to fear and which have taken the lives of many adventurers. I have visited Africa and have known the extent of these. I had a fever peculiar to that portion of the country I visited nine different times and narrowly escaped with my life."

"The ex-president has no the temperament or the temper that a man needs who would withstand the dangers of the climate he plans to brave."

Ex-President's Plans. New York, March 8.—When ex-President Roosevelt leaves New York on March 23 on the steamship Hamburg, of the Hamburg-American line, he will have the distinction of occupying the Imperial suite, which was used by the German emperor when he went to the Mediterranean during the winter of 1905-6. The Hamburg is due to arrive at Naples on April 1, when the first leg of Mr. Roosevelt's journey will be finished.

The Imperial suite is situated on the upper promenade deck, on the starboard side of the liner, and includes a parlor, two bedrooms and two bathrooms. The rooms are very quietly furnished.

Although on shipboard, the ex-president will not lack in means of taking vigorous exercise, for the Hamburg has a well-equipped gymnasium with an electric "horse" and a rough-riding "camel." Any degree of jolting may be obtained by the manipulation of these devices, and Mr. Roosevelt, if he wishes, may repeat his famous ninety-mile ride while a thousand miles out at sea.

USES PISTOL

TO PRESS HIS DEMANDS FOR SWEETHEART'S ATTENTIONS

Alonso Lipscomb Fires Four Shots at His Rival Sunday Afternoon.

Two rivals over the hand of a woman had an exciting encounter yesterday afternoon late when Alonso Lipscomb, colored, pressed his demands with a pistol, and forced his rival, Seldom Matlock, colored, to flee unceremoniously. Lipscomb took four shots at his rival, but Matlock escaped being shot. The police department was notified of the shooting, and Lipscomb followed the plan of his rival and escaped from the house. The news was received at the police station of a regular riot, and Chief Collins dispatched Patrolmen

Geurieux, Rice, Seamon and Deputy Jailer Starret to the scene of the shooting.

The shots created much excitement among the populace and several hundred people joined in the chase of the fugitive. The police learned that Lipscomb went out Monroe street and his trail was followed until he turned in an alley near Fountain avenue and Monroe street. Exits were blocked and the police scoured up and down the alley and searched stables. The alley was watched until after darkness, but Lipscomb escaped.

Matlock was arrested last night by Patrolmen Clark and Gilliam on a charge of breach of peace, while Lipscomb, it is thought, left the city, but the police know the negro, and will pick him up when he returns to the city. He was only released from the city jail about ten days ago.

The shooting created much excitement and many people, who were out riding, watched the police search for the negro.

THE CAUSE OF COLDS.
Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only properly fortify and strengthen their system, about 98 per cent of coughs, colds
and pneumonia might be avoided.
These troubles are simply the result of weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane, which is an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened, it becomes infected with germs which are carried through the system by the blood. These parasites attack and break these delicate tissues and set up a soreness which produces what is in reality an external scrofula.

The only thing that will cure coughs and colds and prevent pneumonia is a medication which is absorbed and carried by the blood so that the diseased membrane is disinfected, cleaned, soothed and healed.
We have a remedy which we honestly believe infallible and unsurpassable for the prevention and cure of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of 30 years of curing gained through the use of this medicine. We promise to either effect a cure in every case or make no charge for the medicine. We urge everybody in Paducah who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Muscu-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not absolutely positive that we could absolutely cure in every particular, and we see no reason why any one should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Muscu-Tone. Price 50c and $1.00. Sometimes a 50c bottle is sufficient for a cure. As a general thing, the most chronic case is cured with an average of three large bottles. Remember, the medicine will cost you nothing if you are not satisfied in every particular.—W. H. Mc-Pherson, Paducah.

lead to fair dealing.

CHAPTER XII.

THE LURE OF A WOMAN'S LOVE

CAROLINA had come to find out from Haines, if possible, how her father was going to vote on the naval base and to induce the secretary to persuade him to stand for Altacoola—if there seemed danger that he would vote for another site. That was her scheme, for Carolina had put $25,000 into Altacoola land, money left by her mother.
Norton had persuaded Carolina to invest in the enterprise to defraud the government, promising her $50,000 clear profit. How much she could do in Washington society with that!

The continued uncertainty over her father's final attitude had strained her nerves almost to the breaking, for the success of the conspiracy depended on his vote. Not even the words of Norton, her future husband, could reassure her. Her worry was increased by the knowledge of Randolph's investment of her father's $50,000.

That Carolina must sacrifice Haines on the altar of her consuming desire for money, for a higher worldly position, was an unpleasant consideration. He stood in the way. Any manner he might discover the existence of the Altacoola scheme, he would immediately tell her father, and she knew her father would immediately decide against Altacoola—the bright hopes of her future would turn to ashes. Norton's money as well as invested in Altacoola. He, too, would be ruined.
She was sure that she loved Norton,
but she could not marry a penniless man.

Carolina resumed the conversation.
"It isn't anything so very important,
Mr. Haines. It's about father."
Haines beamed.
"I have the honor to report, Miss Langdon," he bowed, "that your father is making the very best kind of a senator."
The girl hesitated.
"Yes; he might if he had some ambition."
"Don't worry! If he comes down to that, I have ambition for two. You want him to be a success, don't you?
Well, he is the biggest kind of a success."
"I never believed that he would be,"
confessed the daughter.
Haines laughed.

"Why, do you realize that today he is one of the most popular men in public life throughout the country; that what does Langdon think? has become the watchword of the big body of independent who want honesty and decent government without graft?"

"I tell you that's a big thing, Miss Langdon. That's success—real success in politics, especially in Washington politics."
"Now, if there's anything else you want him to have, I'll see that he gets
it. I'll try to get it for him—he paused a moment, then added, with heartfelt meaning in his voice—"and for you, Miss Langdon." Carolina played coquettishly with the secretary.

"For me, Mr. Haines?" she questioned archly, with an effective glance into his eyes.
Haines began to throb violently to pulse.
"Yes," he exclaimed unthinkingly, "for you, and you know it. That's the inspiration now,
the chance of winning your belief in me, of winning something more, the biggest thing I ever thought to win—because,
Miss Langdon—
Carolina—I love
you." He bent over and seized
the girl's hand.
"Ever since the day I first saw you!"

She shook her head indignantly
and in a moment drew her hand from his.
"You mustn't be so serious, Mr.
Haines. You don't understand southern girls at all. We are not just like northern girls. We are used to being made love to from the time we are knee high. Sometimes I fear we flirt a little, but we don't mean any harm.
All girls flirt—a little."

"But somebody wins even the southern girls," declared Haines eagerly.
The girl's face became serious, earnest, sincere.
"Yes, somebody does, always," she said. "And when a southern girl is won she stays won, Mr. Haines."
"And I have a chance to win?" questioned the determined young northerner.
Carolina smiled sweetly and expressively.
"Who knows? First make my father even a bigger success—that's first. Oh, I wonder if you can realize what all this life means to me! If you can realize what those years of stagnating

on the plantation meant to me? No man would have endured it!" she exclaimed bitterly. "I am more of a man than a woman in some ways; I'm ambitious. From the time I was a little girl I've wanted the world.
power, fame,
money. I want them still. I mean to get them
myself, somehow, anyhow. If I can't get them myself, some one must get them for me."

"And love?" suggested the man.
"You are leaving love out. Suppose I get all these things for you? Suppose
I had a pounding heart almost stopped.
He could scarcely gain his breath as he saw creep into Carolina's eyes what he believed to be the light of hope for him, the light even of a woman's promise."

"Who knows, Mr. Haines? There's no reward guaranteed. There may be others trying," she answered.
Haines laughed—the strong, hopeful, fighting laugh of the man who would conquer the boss of the senate on ground of the boss' own choosing.
"All right!" he cried. "If it's an open fight I'll enlist. I'll give them all a run. What are your orders?"

Carolina appeared indifferent.
"I don't know that I have any particular orders, sir knight, except to see that my father does all he can for the Altacoola naval base."
Haines paused, seized by a sudden tremor.
"The Altacoola naval base?" he stammered. "Well, all I can say is that the senator will do what he thinks right.
That might bring power and fame—a right decision in this case—but it can't bring money."

Carolina shrugged her shoulders.
"Money?" She laughed with affected carelessness. "Well, we'll have to let the money take care of itself for a time. But I do want him to vote for Altacoola, because I believe that will be the best for him. You believe in Altacoola, don't you?"

Haines hesitated, then answered:
"Well, between the two sites merely as sites Altacoola seems to me rather better."
"Miss Langdon held out her hand impulsively.
"Then it will be Altacoola!" she cried.
"Thank you, Mr. Haines. We are partners, then, for Altacoola."
The young man grasped her hand earnestly.
"I'd like to be your partner for good,
Carolina!" he cried.
They stood there close together, holding each other's hands, looking into each other's eyes, when the door opened and in came Charles Norton.

SHAKERS FAST PASSING AWAY

Membership 50 Years Ago 500
But Only 29 Remain.

Property Near Lebanon, Ohio, May
Be Taken Over by Methodists of Cincinnati.

WERE ONCE VERY PROSPEROUS.

Lebanon, Ohio, March 8.—The United Society of Shakers, at Union Village, this county, is fast being vanquished by the hand of death, and the time is fast approaching when the organization will pass into oblivion. Plans are now on foot for the Methodist Home of the Aged, in Cincinnati to absorb the society.

Of a membership of 500 half a century ago, there remain but 29 converts to the faith. Among these only two are younger than fifty years, and but five have not reached the allotted three score years and ten. It can be plainly seen that a dissolution is inevitable.

Rev. H. C. Weakley, president of the Home, in a recent visit to the village, talked of taking over the few survivors and giving them comfortable homes in the institution the rest of their days, and at their death the property would come into the possession of the institution for the furtherance of their excellent work. While plans are only tentative and may never materialize, the Shakers one and all are in accord with the movement.

It was in 1805 that the first missionaries of the Shakers came to Warren county from Lebanon, New York, and a year later founded a colony that grew, prospered and faded within a century.

West of Lebanon, upon 4,000 acres of Warren county's richest soil, these people lived and thrived. They created their own industries and fought their own battles for supremacy.

Efforts have at times been made to squander this valuable land, but at present, under the efficient management of Trustee James Fennessy, it is financially in excellent condition. In his eighth year of trusteeship having cleared an indebtedness of $20,000 and netted a neat surplus which now stands at $10,000.

TOBACCO NEWS

Louisville Tobacco.
Louisville, March 8. That the round-up of the 1908 burley crop is nearly at hand is evident through the fact that the receipts and sales are decreasing each week. Last week the total offerings on the tobacco breaks consisted of 2,330 hogsheds, of which number 1,094 hogsheds were new burley, while the American Tobacco company acquired at reported private sales 187 hogsheds of new burley. This week the total offerings on the breaks consisted of 2,173 hogsheds of tobacco, of which number 752 hogsheds were new burley, while the American Tobacco company secured only 167 hogsheds at the reported private sales. This made decreases in total offerings for the present week 157 hogsheds, in new burley 342 hogsheds and in American Tobacco company purchases 20 hogsheds.

Of the 2,173 hogsheds, which constituted the total offerings this week, as stated before, 752 hogsheds were new burley, while the rest consisted of 711 old burley, 619 new dark and 91 old dark.

The quality of the offerings this week was only fair, while the condition was generally poor. Common and medium red leaf were firm;
good red leaf was lower, while color-smokers, strippers, cut plug grades and natural leaf fillers were in good demand and continue to command high prices.

The offerings of old burley were small, with the quality not up to the standard of last week. Color grades were readily taken at full quotations, with red tobacco being lower.

The new dark offerings, at auction, consisted of 561 hogsheds. The manufacturing leaf was easier, long rehanding leaf was firm, while other grades of air-cured leaf were 1/4 to 1/2 cent lower. Rejections were large owing to the fact that the export styles of leaf showed no improvement, and, as a result, buyers were not keen to take on any doubtful or soft tobacco. Long leaf was firm;
other grades of leaf in good order met with a fair demand; soft tobacco was lower and lugs were unchanged.
No change transpired in the market for old dark.

Of the reported private sales 612 hogsheds were old burley sampled for the Equity society, 167 were new burley sold to the American Tobacco company, 91 old dark and 55
new dark sold to various parties.

TWO GREAT PREMIUMS

For All Subscribers to The Sun

No Increase in Your Subscription and Premiums Every Month

Fifty Cents' Worth of STUTZ CANDIES

Free Every Month For Six Months

SOUNDS almost too good to be true, doesn't it? But that is precisely what we are doing. And when you read how we do it below, it's safe to say you will be delighted, if there is anyone at your house who has an unsatisfied "sweet-tooth"—and perhaps you yourself have?

You see it's this way. We were casting about for a premium to give our subscribers which would be different from the usual offerings. We wanted something of which the subscriber, as well as ourselves, knew the absolute value, something which even the daintiest woman would appreciate, and something to give you each month. That's how we happened to make this contract with STUTZ'S COLUMBIA—the place which makes and sells the pure, delicious candies, the refreshing drinks, and choice tropical fruits.

Mr. Stutz, you know, has an ambition to make the finest candies it is possible to make—and those who have tried them, and are competent to judge, say that he sells the daintiest, most toothsome morsels of sweetness at 25c, 40c and 50c a pound, which they have ever tasted. Mr. Stutz says their lingering richness is due to the great care given to the selection and blending of absolutely pure ingredients in his model kitchens but we believe there must be something else added to make these goodies so delightful. At any rate, we know the "taste" is there and so will you.

This Is What We Give You

We have accomplished the happy combination of replenishing each four weeks for twenty-four weeks your supply of a dainty, which we know will sadly need replenishing and, at the same time, boosting one of our foremost home industries.

Each four weeks, for twenty-four weeks, when you have paid your 40c, we give you TWO COUPONS, EACH GOOD FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS on the purchase price of 50c worth of any of STUTZ'S 25c, 40c or 50c CANDIES, CHOCOLATES or BON BONS, the other 25c to be paid in cash. You don't have to pay us in advance. You don't pay one penny more for the paper than the regular price of 10c a week. It makes NO DIFFERENCE WHETHER YOU ARE AN OLD OR NEW SUBSCRIBER.

You merely agree to take THE SUN, the best paper published in Western Kentucky, for twenty-four weeks. That's all. You pay only the regular price of 10c a week, for twenty-four weeks. Whenever you finish paying 40c, you get the two 25c coupons, attached to your receipt. Each one of these coupons, when accompanied by 25c cash, buys 50c WORTH OF THAT DELICIOUS STUTZ CANDY, of either the 25c, 40c or 50c grade. Now, that's clear. If you like it, just sign your name and address on the corner coupon and mail it in to us, or call either phone 358 and a representative will call and more fully explain all the particulars to you.

25c In Laundry at the New City Laundry

Free Every Month For Six Months

WHEN we first started this proposition, it appeared to us right away that many of our men subscribers might not care for the candy and we had to hunt around and find something equally good to give them, for we were determined to have a premium for every man and woman in the city. We wanted a household necessity and have it. Here it is: We Give You 25c Worth of Laundry Work at The New City Laundry Each Four Weeks For Twenty-Four Weeks.

Just that. You pay the regular price of 10c a week for twenty-four weeks; no more. Pay it by the week, by the four weeks or in advance and when you have paid the full 40c we give you a receipt to which is attached a coupon which is good for 25c in payment for not less than $1.00 worth of laundry work which shall have been sent to that laundry and payment made therefor during the four weeks covered by your receipt and coupon. Thus, you get THE SUN for 15c a month.

The New City Laundry, you know, is a comparatively young business, with brand new equipment of the most modern sort and their work has come to be the accepted standard of quality among discriminating people. It goes without saying that we recommend their work most highly, else we should never have made this contract with them, for THE SUN seeks the stamp of recognized quality on everything which it puts out.

This Contract Explains How We Give You Free Laundry Work

This offer, too, is open to all subscribers, whether old or new, and if you want to know more about it, just sign the corner coupon, with your name and address, and mail it to us, and our solicitor will call upon you; or if you prefer, call either phone 358, saying you are interested. Remember, These Two Offers are Open to All Subscribers, Whether Old or New, and Cost You Nothing But the Usual 10c a Week.

THE PADUCAH EVENING SUN,
Paducah, Ky.

I am interested in your premium offer, and should like to have a solicitor call to more fully explain it to me.
